AWARD

By order No. ID/FD/222/80/36146, dated 31st July, 1981, the Governor of Haryana referred the following dispute between the management of M/s Shri Viswa Nath, Contractor, Tractor Transport, Escorts Ltd., Mathura Road, Faridabad, (2) M/s Escorts Ltd., Mathura Road, Faridabad, and its workmen to this Tribunal, for adjudication, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (d) of sub-section (1) of section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 :—

4. Whether the tractor drivers should be paid daily allowance in case of delay in tractor delivery? If so, with what details?
5. Whether the tractor drivers who fell sick during the transit period, should be compensated towards medical expenses? If so, with what details?

On receipt of the order of reference, notices were issued to the parties. Shri Radha Krishan, General Secretary appeared on behalf of the workmen and Shri N. S. Ratra for respondent No. 2. Respondent No. 1 did not appear despite service. No claim statement was filled by the workmen, rather none appeared for them on the later dates. On behalf of respondent No. 2 Shri N. S. Ratra made a statement that the concerned workmen were not employees of Escorts Ltd., rather they were engaged by the agents as the management gave delivery of the tractors at the factory gate. No allowance etc. was given to the drivers by the management. In view of ex parte evidence of respondent No. 2, I find that concerned workmen were not employees of M/s Escorts Ltd. The workmen did not come forward to controvert the plea of respondent No. 2 and also to establish their own case, therefore, the reference fails. The workmen are not entitled to any relief.
